2. Workshop Draft Report “Evaluation of a Regional Stormwater Management District”

Lester Steinman, Jim Scholl, Richard Franzetti, and Mike Beyer reviewed the draft of the report. Lester Steinman began with a summary of the various types of governing bodies that could be used for a utility district including IMA’s and public authorities. Richard Franzetti reviewed the benefits of creating a utility district and Jim Scholl reviewed the financial structure including estimated O&M costs, capital improvement costs and revenue generated by user fees. A question and answer period followed the presentation.

Comments will be accepted by Malcolm Pirnie for 2 weeks and should be sent by email to Daniel Sarnoff at dsarnoff@scarsdale.com. A final report will be prepared and each municipality will be given one complete copy. Presentations will be made to each municipality to gain support for the utility district.
